

Red Necks White Socks And Blue Ribbon Beer chords by Johnny Russell

Difficulty: novice

CHORDS

Red Necks, White Socks And Blue Ribbon Beer
by Johnny Russell

VERSE 1:

E A
There's no place that I'd rather be than right
E
here

B
With my red neck, white socks and blue ribbon
E beer

A E
The bar-maid is mad 'cause some guy made a pass
B
The juke box is play-in' there stands the glass
A E
And the cig-a-rette smoke kind-a hangs in the air
B E
Red-necks, white socks and blue rib-bon beer

VERSE 2:

E A E
Well a cow-boy is cus-in' the pin-ball ma-chine
B
A drunk at the bar is get-tin' nois-y and mean
E A E
some guy on the phone says ill be home soon dear
B E
Red-necks white socks and blue rib-bion beer

CHORUS:

B E
No we don't fit in with that white col-lar crowd
B A E
We're a lit-tle too row-dy and a little too loud
A
There's no place that I'd rath-er be than right
E
here
B
With my red-neck white socks and blue rib-bon E beer

VERSE 3:

A
Well the sem-is are pass-ing on the high-way
E
out-side
B
four thir-ty crowd is a-bout to ar-rive
E A E
The sun's go-in' down and we'll all soon be here
B E
Red-necks, white socks and blue rib-bon beer

CHORUS:

B E
No we don't fit in with that white col-lar crowd
B A E
We're a lit-tle too row-dy and a little too loud
A
There's no place that I'd rath-er be than right
E
here
B
With my red-neck white socks and blue rib-bon E beer
TAG:
E
There's no place that I'd rather be than right
B
here
E B
With my red-neck, white socks and blue rib-bon E
beer